Unspent convictions

In order to ensure you are the right fit for the role for which you have applied we ask you to disclose any unspent convictions in the form below. You are not required to disclose any convictions which are considered 'spent' under the Rehabilitation of Offender Act.

Having a criminal record will not automatically exclude you from volunteering. Each case will be considered on its merits and in relation to the particular volunteer role. The circumstances of the offence will always be taken into account so please give as much information as possible.

As with all of your details, this information is treated in strictest confidence.

Do you have any unspent convictions?

References

All potential volunteers are asked to provide details of two referees, and the references they provide help us assess your involvement with CAAS.

Your referees should be people who know you well and are willing to provide a reference for you. Your referees cannot be family members and ideally should have known you for at least six months.
